the 103rd HACAWA is dedicated to

After 41 years of service, Dr. Carolyn Huff retired at the end of the 2010-11 academic year. Dr. Huff taught US History and African History, including courses on South Africa, World War II, and the US Civil War, to more than 8,000 students, through eight US Presidents.

For that whole time she has exemplified commitment to teaching, to collegiality, and to the gentle mastery of her craft. One would be hard-pressed to find a professor with more uniformly devoted students. This is one of the easiest dedication decisions the HACAWA has ever taken.

First year at Lenoir-Rhyne: 1969-70 - Raymond M. Bost Distinguished Professor Award - 1976 - Sears Award for Teaching Excellence - 1991

Dr. Huff is an amazing woman and the main reason that I took on a major in History. I am honored that I was able to sit under her instruction and soak in her wisdom. I think that LR is losing one of their prized treasures when she retires and that the future students will be at a loss without her intelligence. She is awe inspiring. I am grateful for her help along the way and for her understanding of the different situations that life can throw at you at any given time. I thank her for willingness to write my letter of recommendation for graduate school and I want her to know that she is one of the sources of inspiration for that goal. I pray that God blesses her in all of her endeavors from this day forward.

Dr. Carolyn Huff

I can honestly say Dr. Huff changed my life! When I first decided on a major at LR, I was declared English Education. However, after two years of being in Dr.Huff's history class, I changed to history education. She was a fantastic mentor, advisor, and teacher. Her passion for history was evident to all and I only wish her the best in retirement! Happy travels Dr Huff! Love you!

-Shannon Howell, '08

We have wanted to decicate the yearbook to you since we joined the yearbook staff! This year, as editors, we made sure that it happened! Thanks for being a great teacher. We really enjoyed having you light up history for us! We hope you enjoy this year's yearbook. Love you Dr. Huff!

With Spring Break, Springapalooza, and Spring Fling LR is hoppin' with spring fever. ZTA celebrates by showing off the campus' men, while Sigma Kappa races through the night.

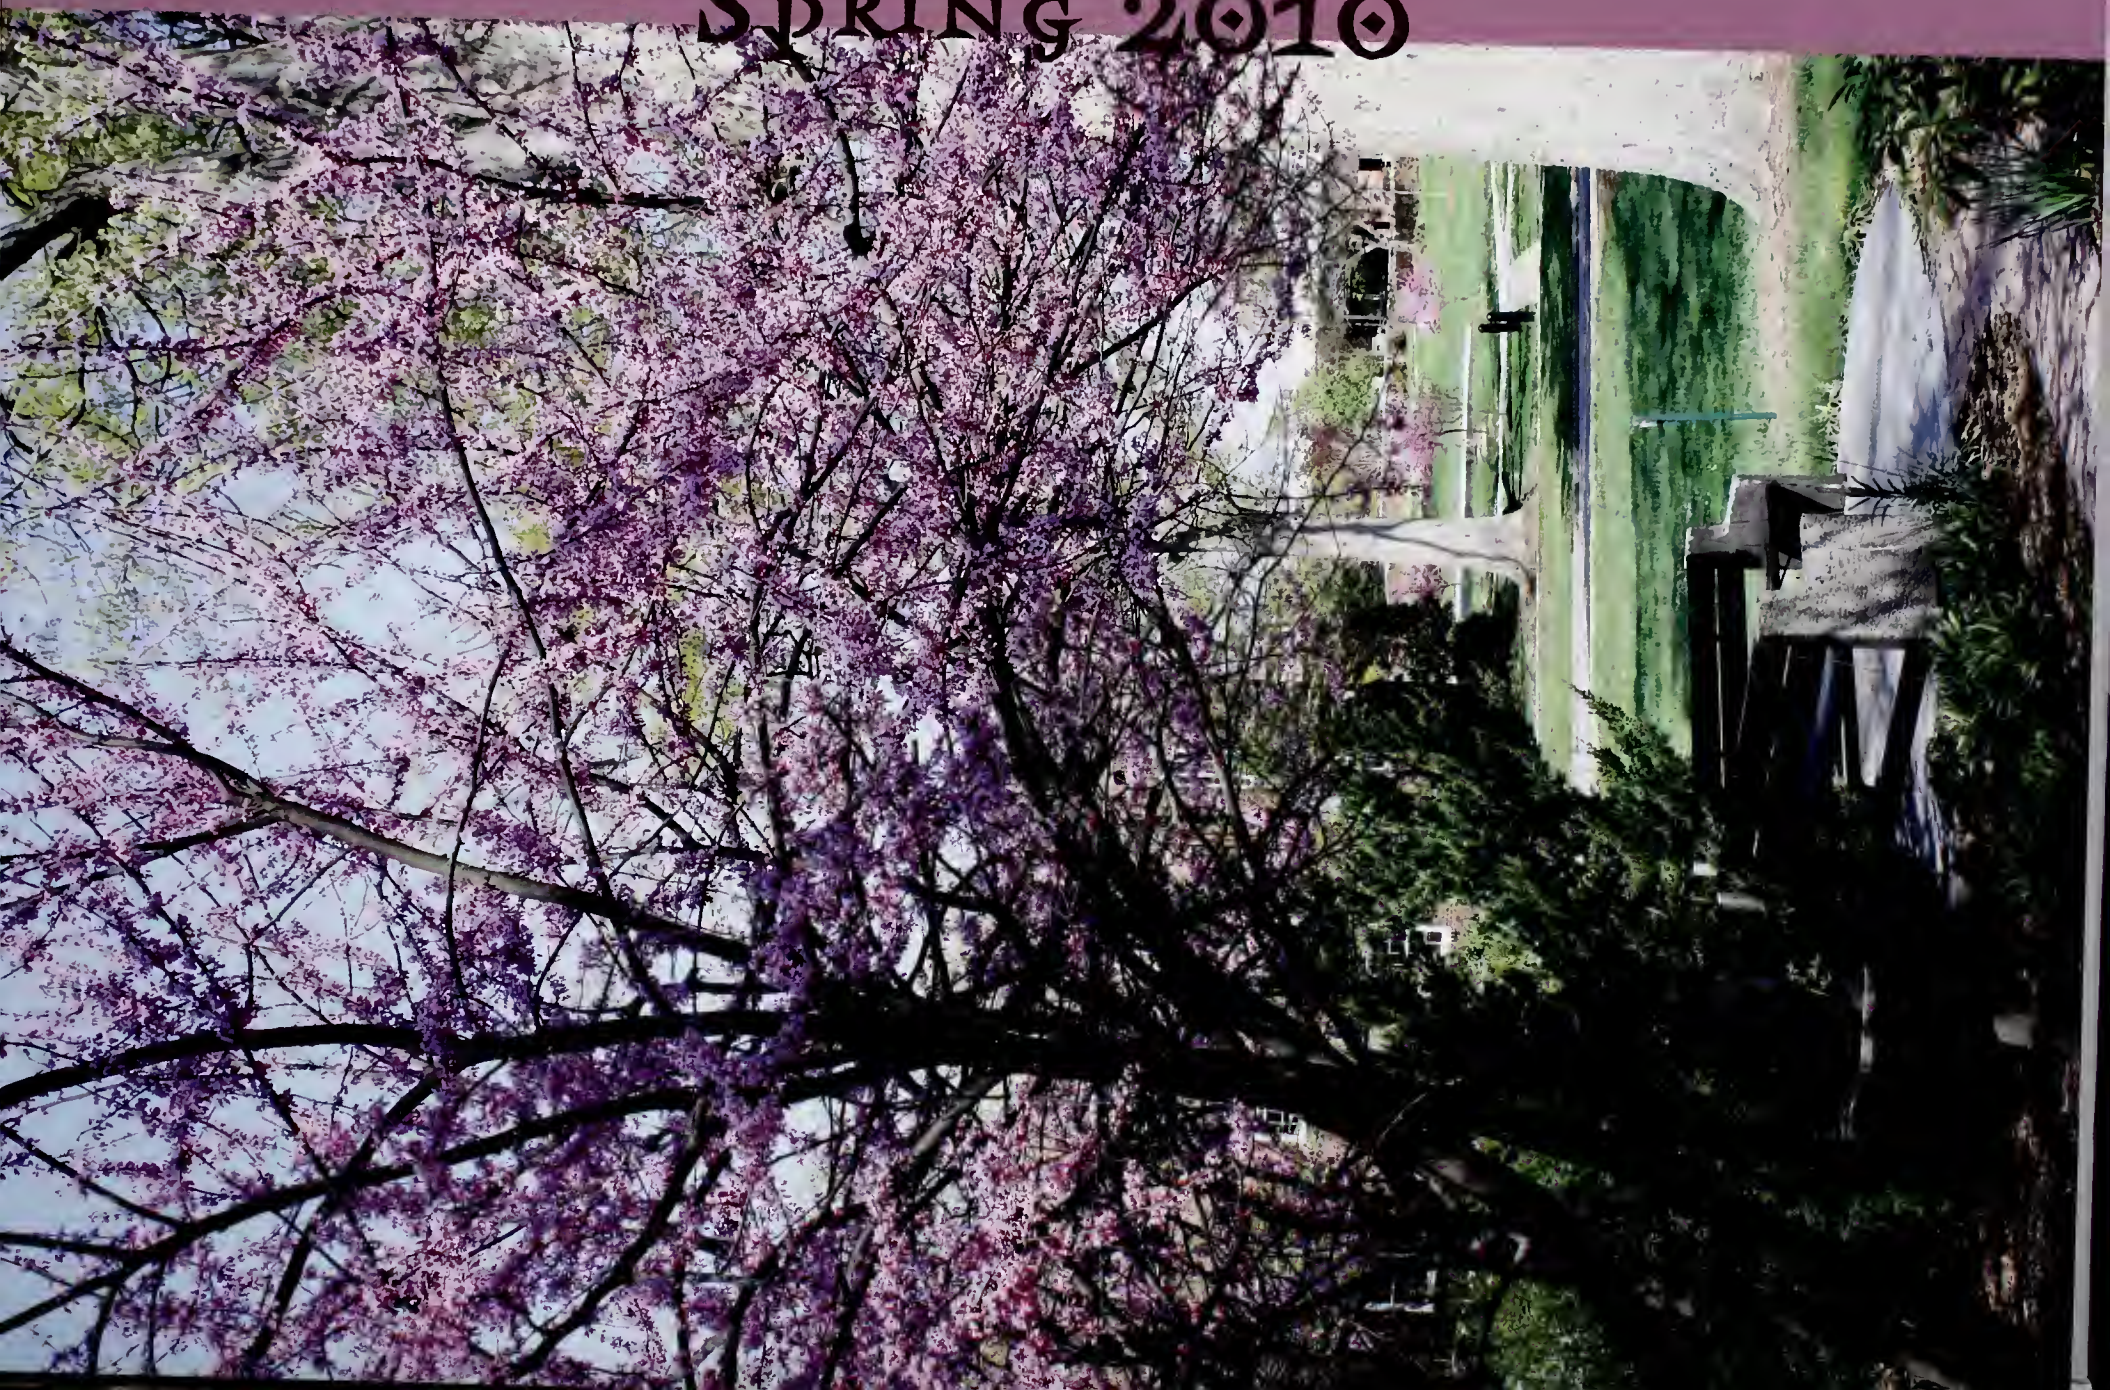

Spring 2010

March 13th - 21st

Every year, hundreds of college students head to Florida for a good time! A handful of LR students did the same as they headed south to enjoy the sun. Let's not forget the flat tire some of the CRU members experenced. Nevertheless, we're glad they made it safely there and back!

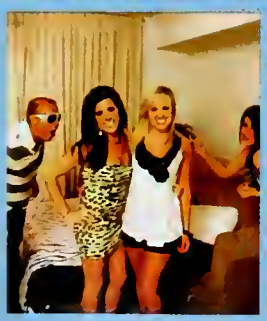

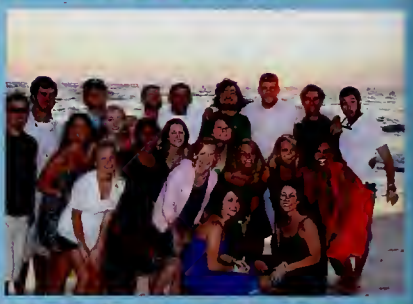

Some LR students got to escape the country as they headed south to Mexico for their spring break!

Spring Break 2010

Friends: Kimi Jauch, Karen Fletcher, Megan Maner, Stephanie Watts, Kelley Hensley, Desirae Ball, Sarah Estridge, and Kari Jauch all headed to Savannah, GA , Tybee Island, and Charleston, SC for their spring break.

It may have been spring, but it was no break for the baseball players as they continued to compete against GA college and GA state.

The A Cappella Choir embarked on their 2nd tour of the year during spring break, covering an area from Tennessee to Atlanta to the Carolinas. While in Atlanta, the members had a free day to explore the city, with many visiting the Coca-Cola Museum and the aquarium. The tour ended with a Sunday night performance at St. Andrews in Hickory, after which the sleepy choristers had to rise and attend class.

Big Man On Campus

On March 30th 2010, Zeta Tau Alpha hosted the 2nd annual Big Man On Campus contest where ten contestants took the stage. Through an opening number and three rounds: swimsuit, talent, and an interview question, the boys battled it out to become the big man on campus. More importantly, ZTA raised $1,300.64 to help fight breast cancer and raise breast cancer education and awareness.

And the winner is: Joshua Mackey! 1st runner up: Bart Keeler 2nd runner up: Keenan Lippard 3rd runner up: Joshua Carter

After the opening number, the talent portion was definitely the hit of the night! From Newmann's, Keeler's, and Carter's dance moves, to Easterling's unicycle pie throwing, the talents where just heating up. Not only were the talents a sight to see, but Lippard's joke telling along with Richter's rap, and Mackey's stunning singing voice, these boys also added to the talent portion by giving the audience something to hear. No one will forget Siezega's hula hoop skills, Tenny's defense tips, and Vasilos' serenading skills.

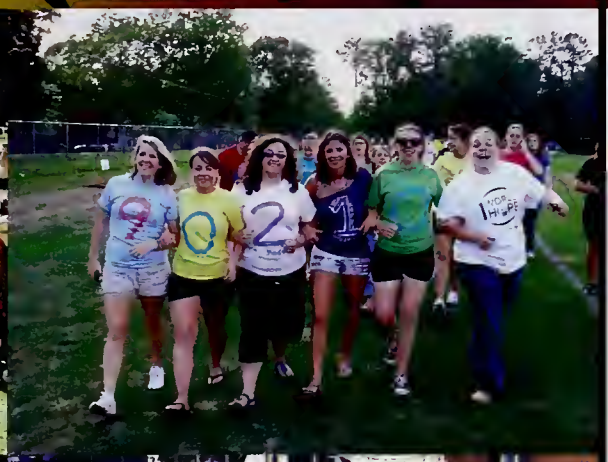

Contestants: Bart Keeler, Joshua Mackey, Bradley Tenny, Andrew Easterling, Michael Richter, Billy Siezega, Joshua Carter, Chris Vasilos, Keenan Lippard and Zach Neumann

Relay for Life

Walking around the practice football field would never sound fun or inviting to most people. However, on the night of April 16th until sunlight broke through the sky on April 17th thats exactly what the students at LRU did. They walked around for hours, along with selling goodies to raise money to help fight cancer.

LSM keeps a tradition alive by selling freezy pops, while Sigma Kappa sells jewelry and even has a bake sale!

Hats off to the lads on LRU's men's soccer team. They not only stayed out all night, but they ran the entire time. Taking turns, they ran a few laps at a time for an hour straight before handing off the baton to the next mate. Plus their team raised the most money for the cause as

Spring Fling April 19-210 2010

Spring Fling has arrived and LR students celebrate with activities brought to the student body by the Campus Activities Board also know as CAB. This past spring students enjoyed a number of events including: 3D Motion Theater, Fantasy Photo Shoot, Planetarium Dome Theater,Bouncy Boxing, Laser Tag,Rock Wall, Drunkin Goggles, Jockin Jams,Bingo and an Obstacle Course.

Springapalooza April 29th 2010

For those who helped out at last year's Springapalooza, we all remember the major lightning storm that decided to hit just minutes before Article One came on stage. This year, we invited them back and decided to have Springapalooza indoors! Not only was there amazing music from Article One, but Travis Greene also shined as he started the night off with an amazing worship service. Following his act, Adrian Despres stood in front of the stage, rather than on it, to connect with anyone who was willing to listen.

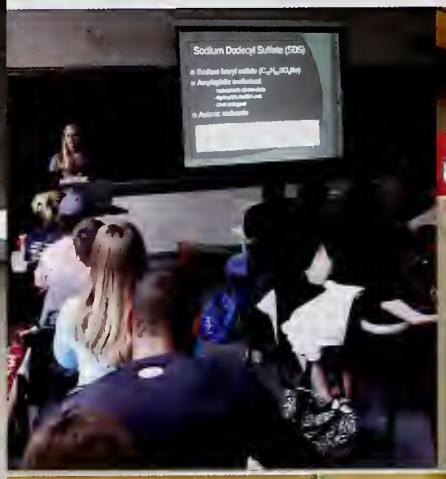

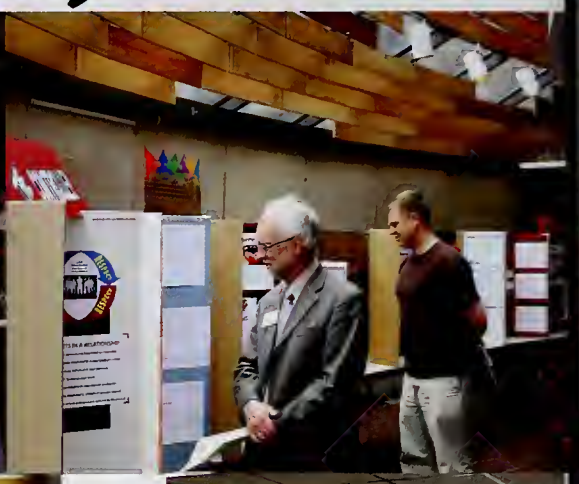

LR's 2nd SOURCE Symposium

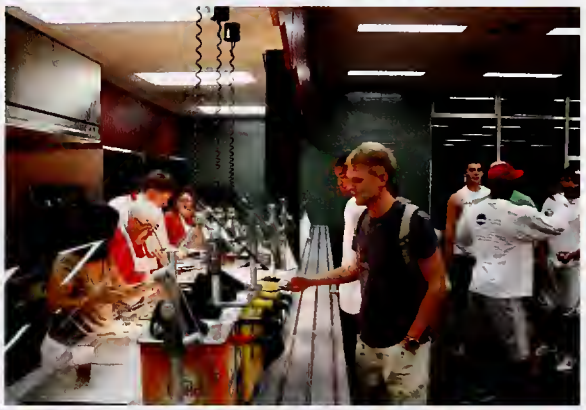

On April 20th, students showcased their academic talents by presenting new ideas, projects, and theories as they battled it out to be first. In the end, Isaac Smith was the winner, followed by Lindsay Yount in second, and Robby Duncan stealing third.

Midnight Breakfast

It's a tradition, every Friday of exam weekend, the students at LRU flood the cafe' to be served a pile of pancakes by their teachers. For some, it's the only time student Bears come out of their caves to socialize during these intense times.

Not only does the front of the cafe become filled with hungary Bears, but so does the back of the cafe as well!.

Baccalaureate

May 14th, 2010

Kicking off the graduation ceremonies, Baccalaureate is the last event seniors partake in as a student here at Lenoir Rhyne. With music provided by the A Cappella Choir, service presided by Campus Pastor Andrew Weisner and guest speaker Tim Smith, this ceremony provides a meaningful close to a successful college carrer.

rise ^ up

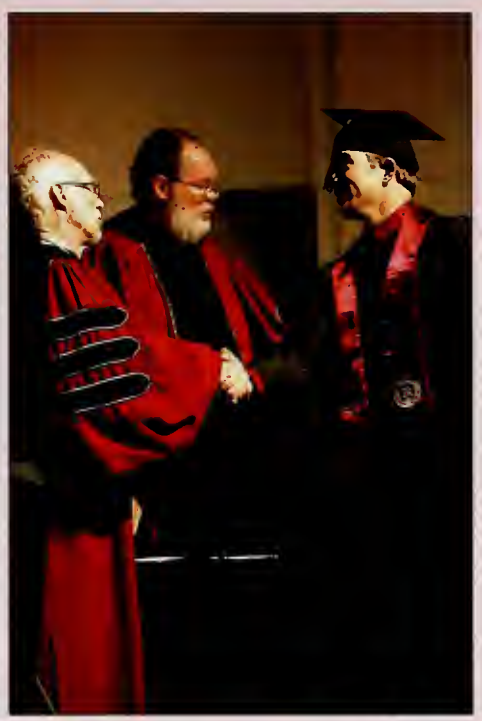

Two students who got the chance to bid their fellow graduating students farewell were Ty Dannenbring and Lenny Dinardo. After Ty's detour metaphors, the entire crowd made one as they headed inside to hear Lenny's speech and to watch their seniors walk the stage

Commencement 2010

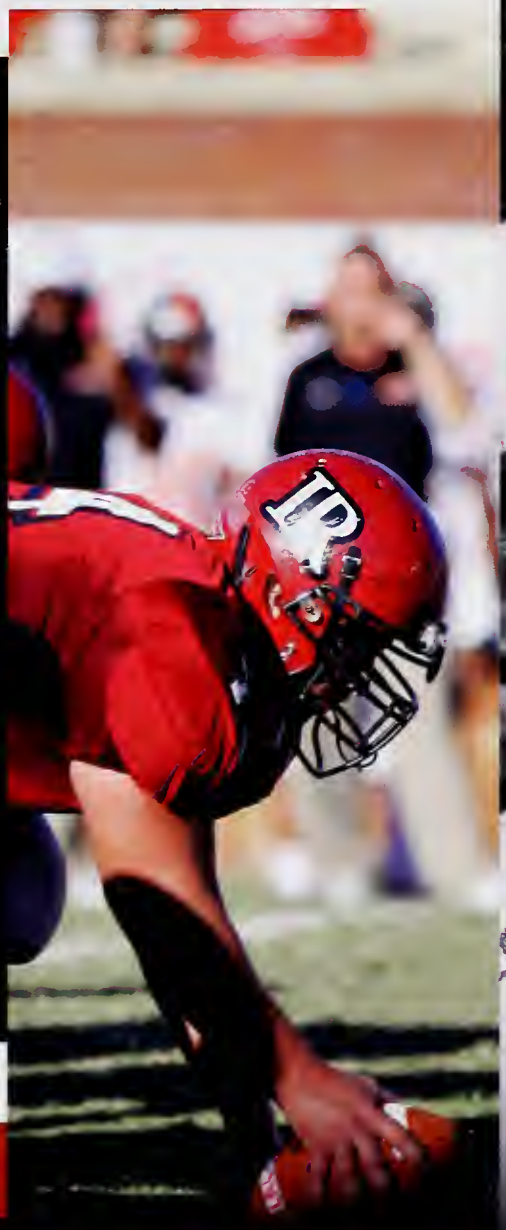

The graduates were in place, ready to walk across the outdoor stage in Moretz Stadium, set up just for them. As soon as Ty finished his speech to the graduating class, however, everyone was shuffled indoors just before a storm hit. The seniors made their way into the gym as their families and friends headed to the auditorium. The storm certainly didn't stop the class of 2010 from walking the stage, but with the unexpected move, the diplomas got out of order. Seniors were unable to be receive their certificates of achievement at that time. Nonetheless, Congratulations class of 2010! You proved that you can make it through any kind of storm!

Sports

Lenoir-Rhyne students strive to succeed not only in the classroom, but on the field as well. With Softball ranking nationally, the Football team's first winning season in years, and Women's Soccer reaching the top eight nationally, the Bears mauled their competition. New Bears were spotted on the playing field and in the water, with Men and Women's Lacrosse, along with Men's Swimming. Always keeping spirits high, the "syke-ooos" and "hooliums" give LR athletes high class and quality support from the sidelines. Well done Bears, well done!

This series depicts members of the lacrosse team putting up a valiant effort in a flag football game minutes after they finished a hard lacrosse practice with Coach Paradine. They did not reach the finals, but showed a lot of heart attempting it. Bravo, good sirs.

Fireworks may have given homecoming the perfect ending, but LR students kept their lights ignited throughout the year. HARRY POTTER

WEEK

This year brought to LenoirRhyne the first ever, annual Harry Potter Week, featuring an enchanted dining hall, wand-making, movie showings, costumes and costume contests, quidditch, wizard rock, and much more. Our campus was blessed with speeches by Harry Potter scholars John Granger & Dr. Amy Sturgis and performances by Gred and Forge & the Blathering Humdingers. Special thanks to Dr. Katie Fisher for all of her help.

At the beginning of every school year, students involved with campus organizations and activities gather to show other students what their organizations are all about. With a wide range of extracurricular activities, every student at LR is sure to find one that fits them!

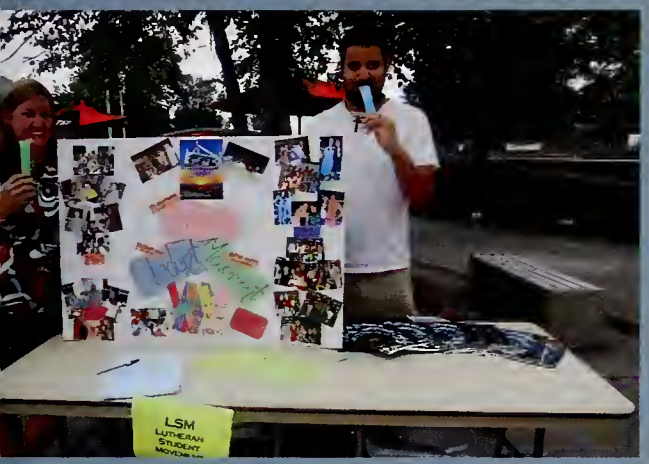

Student Organizations

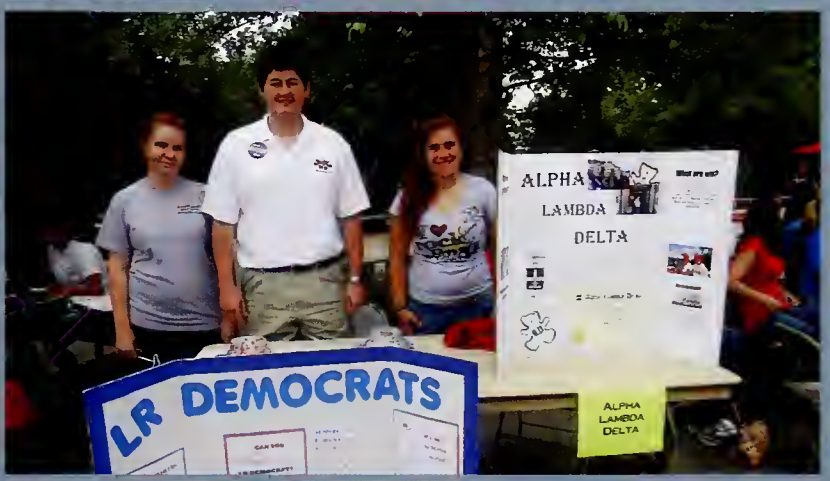

fellowship of Christian athletes

FCA meets every Monday night at 8:28pm. Why 8:28? The time reflects Romans 8:28 that states "and we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose."

FCA is packed with music, games, team huddles, fellowship, God's word and good times.

Campus Crusade for Christ

CRU meets every Tuesday at 9:00pm for fun, fellowship, and worship. With guest speakers, encounter, and summer projects, CRU is truly making a difference, not only in the students lives here at LR, but with people all over the world.

Intervarsity

Intervarsity Christian Fellowship is a small christian ministry that relaxes, has fun, and worships every Wed. night at 9 in the Hickory room. We also have Bible studies Sunday nights. We go on retreats such as Urbana, Rockbridge, and Greek Intervarsity Conference. You will even see us tailgating at home football games together!

Lutheran Student Movement

The Lutheran Student Movement here at LR is a smaller ministry, but is HUGE in God's Spirit which is shown through our fellowship. The crazy fun we have in a relaxed environment and the support and comfort we offer to one another is what we thrive on. We are always thrilled to have new faces and personalities join our group.

Remember: At LSM you don't have to be Lutheran and you don't have to be a Student, but we do encourage Movement!

Mortar Board

Senior Honor Society

Mortar Board is a national honor society that recognizes college seniors for outstanding achievement in scholarship, leadership, and service. Since its founding in 1918, the organization has grown from the four founding chapters to 226 chartered collegiate and 18 active alumni chapters with nearly a quarter of a million initiated members across the nation. Mortar Board provides opportunities for continued leadership development, promotes service to colleges and universities and encourages lifelong contributions to the global community.

Unique Facts about Mortar Board...

-Mortar Board was founded on February 15, 1918

-Mortar Board was established as the first national organization honoring senior college women. Even after Mortar Board began accepting men in 1975, it remained loyal to its heritage with a commitment to the advancement of the status of women.

-Mortar Board and its chapters are governed by members. Chapter delegates set the purpose and direct the organization at the annual national conference

Notable initiates of Mortar Board are Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice, Astronaut on the Challenger Judith Resnick , Best-selling author Aron Ralston, Professional football player Drew Brees, Best-selling author Bruce Littlefield. Notable honorary members of Mortar Board are Professional cyclist Lance Armstrong, Former Supreme Court Justice Sandra Day O'Connor, Poet Maya Angelou, Former President Jimmy Carter, and Former Mayor of New York Rudolph Giuliani.

-Mortar Board functions as an honor society rather than an honorary. The difference is that while an honorary exists solely for the purpose of honoring its members, an honor society, although composed of members who have already distinguished themselves and been recognized for such, continues to make significant contributions to college and community life. Belonging to an honor society carries a commitment of individual and group participation. Therefore, Mortar Board members are not an idle part of the organization, but are active and involved, accepting the responsibility and obligation to be devoted to their chapters.

ARTS

Lenoir-Rhyne is committed to providing its students with rich, cultural experiences from all across the world. We invite musicians from all different styles such as Daniel Bernard Roumain, known by his initials DBR (pictured right) to participate in the Friends of Music Concert Series. DBR's unique style of music blends funk, rock, hip hop, and classical music into an energetic and experiential sonic form. He performed several pieces for the Hickory Community including his Voodoo Violin Concerto with the Western Piedmont Symphony.

Lenoir-Rhyne's extracurricular activities, such as the A Cappella Choir, Concert Band and Playmakers, are dedicated to providing this campus with extraordinary entertainment, day and night. In this section you will find performances such as Livin' de Life (LR Playmakers production), the A Cappella Choir's 75th Year Anniversary Christmas Concert and various selections of campus artistic talent from the visual arts department.

Low Brass Studio

Dr. Chris Nigrelli, Professor of Low Brass at LRU, is spending the spring semester on sabbatical. He says that it is take time to practice and further his mastery of the trombone, but his trombone/tuba/euphonium students know that the real reason is to escape their endless barrage of questions. Have a productive sabbatical Dr. N!

In the wake of Dr. Nigrelli's absence, the Lenoir-Rhyne Music Department is pleased to welcome Thomas Burge as the professor of trombone. Originally from Sydney, Australia, Tom studied at the prestigious Juilliard School in New York City. Tom is currently the second trombonist of the Charlotte Symphony and also teaches at Davidson College. Cheers mate!

The LR Music Department is also pleased to welcome Michael Taylor as the professor of tuba and euphonium. Mike hails from the faraway land of Morganton, NC and actually went to Lenoir-Rhyne for part of his undergraduate career. Mike holds degrees from WCU and the prestigious Jacob's School of Music at Indiana University. He is also on the faculy of Furman University and is frequently seen performing with the Unifour Brass Ensemble and Hendersonville Symphony.

Performing as the romantic pair of Benedick and Beatrice is junior theatre student Cody Watson and sophomore theatre/English major Hannah P. Simmons. Corey Cavanaugh, junior theatre major, and Leah Staton, a senior in English education, play the duo of Claudio and Hero.

Lenoir-Rhyne Teaching Fellows

This year is the fourth year LR has had the NC Teaching Fellows program and the first year with 4 cohorts. With 19 new freshmen, the program has grown to 69 fellows! LR Teaching Fellows have been very active this year. Over the summer the Seniors went on an educational trip to Amsterdam and Germany, learning about the culture and education system abroad. The TFs also hosted a variety of educational forums on campus, bringing in speakers to talk about topics in the teaching profession. They participated in different service projects including Operation Christmas Child, Save Sole for Haiti, Relay for Life, and a canned food drive. This has been a very exciting year, especially with the very first class of Teaching Fellows graduating. The program has grown over the past four years and will continue to be a great addition to Lenoir-Rhyne.

Dorm Life

Morgan

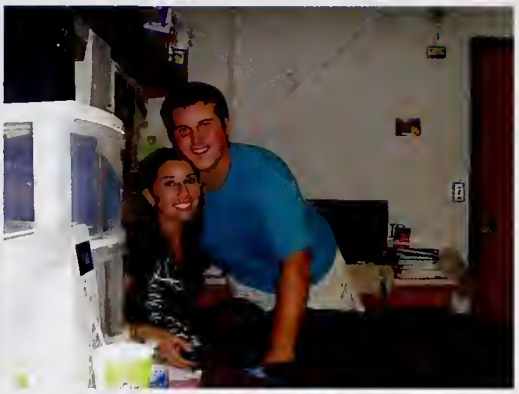

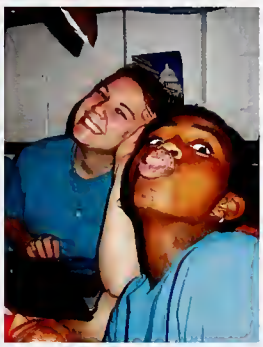

Isenhour

Freshman used to only have the choice between Morgan or IKE. The freshman that lived in IKE usually wanted to have the bathroom next to their room rather than down the hall. However, with LR on the rise and the number of students it needs to house, now any LR student can live in either dorm.

a.k.a. IKE

Price Village

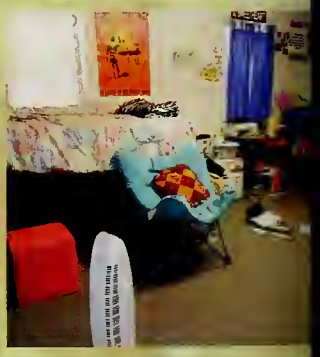

In mini houses, at the end of the road, you will find a village of full grown college students. Living with five to fourteen others, you're sure to find a friend inside. And the cost of that friend = PRICELESS!

Living Learning Center

a.k.a the LLC

Lockers take over the 2nd floor on the right side of the LLC! It all started when room 210 painted letters to show off their individual style, followed by their friends next door in room 212. Yet, the fever of showing off who was in your room wasn't over yet, because room 213 did it as well!

Fritz Conrad

Which ever side you live on, its ok because you are right behind the Rhyne building! That makes it great for sleeping in and making your way over to class! With new renovations including a theater, and Cub's Pub it is a great place to be!

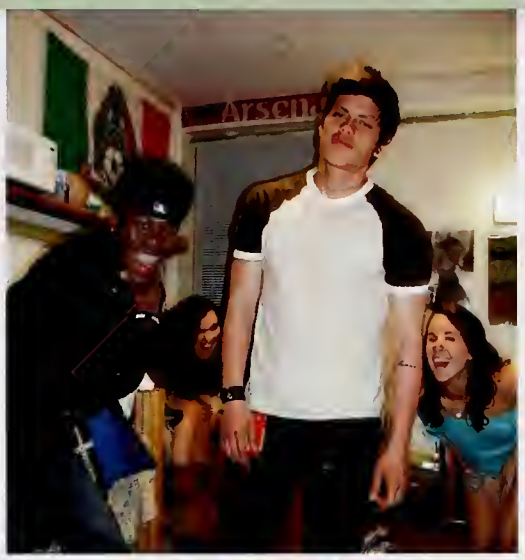

Mauney-Schaeffer

With student numbers on the rise Mauney-Schaffer had to be used for more housing this year!! Every year the Corner Stone House at the end of the road is also used as student housing as well!

Sophomores...

Sophomores, you've made it through another year! The etymology behind the word sophomore has many theories. One greek term sophisma may be one meaning behind the word which stands for: "acquired skill, and clever device." Another theory comes from the greek word sophizo "to become wise, and to instruct." Others argue it is a combation of sophos meaning "wise" and moros meaning "foolish, and dull." We will let you decide!

Class of 2011

Congratulations to the Class of 2011. We have finally made it!!! This is a quick glance at the past four years here at LR!

LRC to LRU. In August 2008 Lenoir Rhyne College made the transition to Lenoir Rhyne University!

Learning Commons. The Carl A. Rudisill Library completely revamped the inside with the Lohr Learning Commons. This project was completed in January 2010.

Moretz Sports Complex. One of the biggest projects that took place was the construction that turned the big grassy field, by the LLC, into a new state-of-the-art sports complex for the Bears to compete.

Sugar Bears are back. Since 2007, the Sugar Bears have been gone, but now they are back. In 2010 the Sugar Bears returned to the Moretz stadium.

Athletic Sculptures Life-size, in action sculptures came to our LR campus in 2009. The sculptures include a female javelin thrower, a male soccer player, a female softball player, a male baseball player, a female volleyball player, and a male basketball player. The sculptures were a gift from Irwin Belk, a Charlotte philanthropist interested in college athletics and art. The athletic statues were designed by Richard Hallier. Later came two more came representing our new Lacrosse teams.

In the future LR may see the following:

~A new gym
~Tennis courts
~A new wing to Mingies Science Building
~A chapel
~New dorms

Guess you will have to come back and visit to see what happens!

Online registration. It was our first year, first semester here at LR when many of the freshman camped out and stayed up all night, in he cold, under the Linberger building just to egister for their next semester classes. Finally, by he next semester, LR had online registration; vhich made things much easier.

Evaluations. LR went from handing out paper course evaluations, at the end of every semester, to now using technology and having the course evaluations online.

From The Editors

From Editor Christopher Wilson:
When I snuck my little point and shoot into a play my freshman year, I had no idea that it would lead to me becoming Editor in Chief of the University's yearbook. I had no idea that in doing so I was starting my career with the HACAWA and a future passion and hobby. When Christy Coates asked for the pictures from the night, and found out that I had a few thousand pictures from the year that I was willing to share, she offered the position of Head Photographer for the Yearbook. I had no idea what I was doing, but I accepted, and now feel naked without my camera within arms reach. Thank you Christy. I knew I was in a good place when the staff dedicated that year's book in Latin, and I could translate to other staff members during the ceremony. I knew I was needed. Thus, my journey with Yearbook began, and I am proud to finally be its Editor in Chief as a senior. I hope everyone thoroughly enjoys this volume. I know I enjoyed making it, with the help of an outstanding staff.

For all the other seniors on the staff, I wish you all had been able to join Yearbook your freshman year, so that we would have had more time together on staff. That being said, however, the last three years with all of you have been a blast, and I will not ever forget them.

From Editors Kimi & Kari Jauch:
We're not really sure how we got roped into this mess! We just knew that we loved taking pictures after getting our first action shots during a Men's soccer game our freshman year. Yet, it wasn't until our sophomore year that we joined the staff! At first we only put our hearts and souls into the sports section, but we have now branched out and become editors with Mr. Wilson! We hope every enjoys this edition of the HACAWA!

Christopher Wilson: First of all, thanks for dealing with all of the business aspects involved in getting the yearbook into the students' hands! We know we couldn't have done that part! Thank you! While we were trying to do our pages, you had your camera in action, not only taking pictures for your pages, but also taking pictures for us so that we could put our pages together! Thanks for all your hard work!

Kimi and Kari Jauch: Ladies, your hard work and determination has finally paid off. Your work with the yearbook, especially with the sports pages and your "lads," has been monumental and greatly appreciated. With a staff almost entirely comprised of seniors; as a whole, the rest of us had very little time outside of meetings to work on pages. Thankfully, you two had more free time than the rest of us, and employed your spare time to advantage. I applaud you.

Justin Hawkins: Fellow Photographer and Editor, I have enjoyed teaching you, learning from you, and taking photos with you over the past few years. The photography in the yearbooks while we have been at LR has progressively improved, and I am very proud of the clarity, the power, and the overall quality of our shots this year. I couldn't have asked for a better person to take over my post as Head Photographer this year. It would not have been the same without you. Thank you. Justin, that camera has become attached to your body! Your shots were wonderful.Thank you so much for all of your hard work and taking all of those great pictures!

Shelly Fearer: "You're a wizard, Shelly." Well, not in the sense that we should have put you on the Harry Potter page, but as far as PC's go, I tip my hat to you. As the Technical Editor, you exceeded many people's expectations and turned out a piece of digital art. Well done. Our dearest Shelly! Your cover work and designs are absolutely amazing and will be very hard to top! Thank you for all your hard work. We most certainly could not have completed it without you and your talents.You are absolutely brilliant. Well done, Shelly, well done.

Chase Tuttle, Chris Murphy, Henry Michaels, and the Hannah's: Though we were not graced very often with your presence in meetings, you nonetheless had a profound impact on this year's publication and I want to thank you for all of the time you put into this book. It looks great! Chase, you know how much we love your pages! You always stepped in to help when we needed you! We thank you so much! Chris and Henry thanks for doing the arts section and all of your other work! We've enjoyed having you on staff! The Hannah's, thank you for doing your pages! To all you veterans returning next year, the yearbook now rests in your hands!

Paul Custer: This was a busy year for all of us, especially with introduction of the new core education program, of whose revamping you were an integral part. With the time you had, you gave us much needed help and guidance. When we needed you, you were there. I feel that I speak for the whole group when I say that we could not have done it without you. Thank you for keeping the yearbook alive! LRU is lucky to still have one. With most of us being seniors we wish you the best of luck next year, when you have to rebuild another staff. We know you can! Thanks for everything!

Upcoming Staff: We have many bright prospects for the future staff, and I have high hopes for the next volume. I implore you to make use of every opportunity you have to better the yearbook, both for yourselves and the knowledge-filled masses that are the Lenoir-Rhyne community.
